REFERENCES TO THE TRANSFER OF "RUBIN" AND
 "IRA", AND TO THE RECALL OF "GRIGORIJ".

From: NEW YORK

To: MOSCOW

No.: 1051

26th July 1944

To VIKTOR[i].

1. Yesterday I conversed with RUBIN[ii]. He expressed regret

[13 groups unrecovered]

the KHATA[iii]. He also enquired whether we would transfer him from the work permanently or whether he would be able to resume study [UCHERi] next year[iv]. If permanently does this mean that [24 groups unrecoverable].

RUBIN related, quoting IRA[v], that in CARTHAGE [KARFAGEN][vi] SEROV[vii], for whom IRA worked as secretary, persistently tried to enter into intimate relations with her.
 For the time being it is not known whether the business was limited to attempts; however, R.[viii] expressed suspicion to GRIGORIJ[ix] that IRA was pregnant [but][a] not by him since he had been taking precautions. Please clarify this matter through the appropriate channels, especially in connection with your decision to transfer R. and IRA to work in CARTHAGE, and telegraph your opinion in advance.

3. GRIGORIY, who was informed of the decision to send [him][a] away [OTKOMANDIROVANIE], wants to speak with me. How do you recommend that the recall be justified? GRIGORIY considers that he has been made a scapegoat (actually R.[viii] is no less at fault than GRIGORIY).

4. Would it not be possible to draw URAL[x] gradually into our work?
